"Anyone who has never experienced Jasper Carrott, either live or on television will not be disappointed by this show. Complete with his guitar, this Carrott is certainly not past his sell-by date, Alistair McGowan's performance towards the end of his set in which he displayed linguistic genius as the multi-lingual 'Roger Federer' is superb"

"Jasper has this knack of being able to continue – and add to – a sketch so that it gets funnier by the second....my head felt like it was going to burst and I was laughing so much that, once again, I could hardly breathe."

"I desperately wanted to see Alistair McGowan do his impressions.....He's one of my favourite comedians – and he didn't disappoint."

"Although it's been a while, Jasper Carrott, real name Bob Davis, is still a huge draw on his own, and coupled with impressionist Alistair McGowan and his uncanny portrayals of the likes of David Beckham and Sven Goran Eriksson, I feel quite confident this will be a show to remember."

"WOW what a fantastic night out – this was my first time seeing Jasper live although I have been a fan for a long time, Jasper was incredibly funny and the music was fantastic"
